Finding the nest in a nearby bush or tree and lending a helping hand by placing it back into the nest is frequently all that is required for improving Pharm-Olam work practices and support Business Development using Quality Assurance expertise.